TOLLING OF THE BELL

+ CALL TO WORSHIP

Led by Wanda Gae Stefansson

When we seek justice for the other,
when we love kindness more than ever,
we live as God asks us to live.
When we walk humbly through life,
when we offer mercy to those who hurt us,
we are the blessing God hopes we will be.
When we are willing to look foolish by following Jesus,
when we choose God's weakness rather than worldly power,
we reflect the One who is in our midst. Amen.

1. Come! Live in the light! Shine with the joy and the

+ OPENING PRAYER (unison)

God of justice, kindness, and mercy,
 guide us in our lives
 to live into the ways you have taught us and set before us.
 Guide us to seek justice in all we do,
 remembering that your justice is restoring and healing.
 Teach us how to be kinder,
 to live with the reflection of your love in our hearts.
 Help us to show mercy to others,
 even when it is hard,
 remembering that you grant us mercy every day.
 Keep us to the path you have laid out before us,
 the one that the prophets foretold of old and the great teachers of the faith have steered us towards.
 In the name of Jesus, our Teacher, Savior and Friend, we pray.
 Amen.

+ SHARING THE PEACE OF CHRIST

The peace of God is here to stay.

Thanks be to God.

All are invited to share the peace with those around you.

As young ones gather in the Chancel, we sing together a proclamation of faith, repeating it as they depart for their Music Program.

Walk with me, I will walk with you and build the land that God has planned where love shines through.

WE LISTEN FOR THE WORD

SCRIPTURE LESSON

Micah 6:1-8

Reader's Theatre

Hear what the Lord says: Rise, plead your case before the mountains, and let the hills hear your voice. Hear, you mountains, the controversy of the Lord, and you enduring foundations of the earth; for the Lord has a controversy with his people, and he will contend with Israel. "O my people, what have I done to you? In what have I wearied you? Answer me! For I brought you up from the land of Egypt, and redeemed you from the house of slavery; and I sent before you Moses, Aaron, and Miriam. O my people, remember now what King Balak of Moab devised, what Balaam son of Beor answered him, and what happened from Shittim to Gilgal, that you may know the saving acts of the Lord."

"With what shall I come before the Lord, and bow myself before God on high? Shall I come before him with burnt offerings, with calves a year old? Will the Lord be pleased with thousands of rams, with ten thousands of rivers of oil? Shall I give my firstborn for my transgression, the fruit of my body for the sin of my soul?" He has told you, O mortal, what is good; and what does the Lord require of you but to do justice, and to love kindness, and to walk humbly with your God?

After the lesson: This is the Word of God for the people of God.

Thanks be to God.

SCRIPTURE LESSON

1 Corinthians 1:18-31

For the message about the cross is foolishness to those who are perishing, but to us who are being saved it is the power of God. For it is written, "I will destroy the wisdom of the wise, and the discernment of the discerning I will thwart." Where is the one who is wise? Where is the scribe? Where is the debater of this age? Has not God made foolish the wisdom of the world? For since, in the wisdom of God, the world did not know God through wisdom, God decided, through the foolishness of our proclamation, to save those who believe. For Jews demand signs and Greeks desire wisdom, but we proclaim Christ crucified, a stumbling block to Jews and foolishness to Gentiles, but to those who are the called, both Jews and Greeks, Christ the power of God and the wisdom of God. For God's foolishness is wiser than human wisdom, and God's weakness is stronger than human strength. Consider your own call, brothers and sisters: not many of you were wise by human standards, not many were powerful, not many were of noble birth. But God chose what is foolish in the world to shame the wise; God chose what is weak in the world to shame the strong; God chose what is low and despised in the world, things that are not, to reduce to nothing things that are, so that no one might boast in the presence of God. He is the source of your life in Christ Jesus, who became for us wisdom from God, and righteousness and sanctification and redemption, in order that, as it is written, "Let the one who boasts, boast in the Lord."

After the lesson: This is the Word of God for the people of God.
Thanks be to God.

ANTHEM

Guide my Wayfaring Feet

arr. Ruth Elaine Schram
Sounds of the Risen Son Choir

I'm just a poor, wayfaring stranger
a-traveling through this world of woe,
but there's no sickness, toil, or danger
in that fair land to which I go.

I'm going there to meet my mother, my father,
I'm going there no more to roam.
I'm only going over Jordan.
I'm only going over home.

Guide my feet, Lord, guide me as I go.
Guide my feet, Lord, on this pilgrim way.
Lord, I don't want to walk this way in vain.

RESPONDING TO THE WORD

PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE

THE LORD'S PRAYER

Our Father, who art in heaven: hallowed be thy name.
Thy Kingdom come, thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom and the power and the glory forever. Amen.

OFFERTORY

Be Thou My Vision

John Rutter (b 1945)
Chancel Choir

Be thou my vision, O Lord of my heart,
Be all else but naught to me, save that thou art;
Be thou my best thought in the day and the night,
Both waking and sleeping, thy presence and light.

Be thou my wisdom, be thou my true word,
Be thou ever with me, and I with thee, Lord;
Be thou my great Father, thine own I would be;
Oh thou in me dwelling, and I one with thee.

Be thou my breast-plate, my sword for the fight;
Be thou my whole armor, be thou my true might;
Be thou my soul's shelter, be thou my strong tower:
O raise thou me heavenward, great Power of my power.

Riches I heed not, nor vain empty praise:
Be thou mine inheritance now and always;
Be thou and thou only the first in my heart:
O Sovereign of heaven, my treasure thou art.

High King of heaven, thou heaven's bright Sun,
O grant me its joys after victory is won;
Great Heart of my own heart, whatever befall
Still be thou my vision O Ruler of all.
