GOSPEL LESSON

John 4:5-10

So he came to a Samaritan city called Sychar, near the plot of ground that Jacob had given to his son Joseph. Jacob's well was there, and Jesus, tired out by his journey, was sitting by the well. It was about noon. A Samaritan woman came to draw water, and Jesus said to her, "Give me a drink." (His disciples had gone to the city to buy food.) The Samaritan woman said to him, "How is it that you, a Jew, ask a drink of me, a woman of Samaria?" (Jews do not share things in common with Samaritans.) Jesus answered her, "If you knew the gift of God, and who it is that is saying to you, 'Give me a drink,' you would have asked him, and he would have given you living water."

This is the word of God for the people of God.

Thanks be to God!

CALL TO CONFESSION

Rev. Connie Millsap

PRAYER OF CONFESSION (in unison)

God of living waters,
we confess that we have often turned from you
and wandered in our own wildernesses of fear and doubt.
Our thirst mounts daily,
seeking to be quenched by your redeeming love.
Yet, when that love is offered to us, we again turn away,
unable to truly believe that you would actually heal and love us.
We have behaved in very unloving ways.
We have chosen to ignore those in need
or to deal only passively with them.
Our hearts are not placed in service to others,
but rather in self-serving motives.
Heal us, merciful God.
Wash us again in the living water.
Help us be faithful servants. Amen.

WORDS OF ASSURANCE

The waters of mercy and healing are poured over you.
God is loving and faithful to those who come to God.
Come, seek the loving presence and be healed.
In the name of Christ, you are forgiven and blessed. Amen.

WE LISTEN FOR THE WORD

GOSPEL LESSON

John 4:11-42

The woman said to him, "Sir, you have no bucket, and the well is deep. Where do you get that living water? Are you greater than our ancestor Jacob, who gave us the well, and with his sons and his flocks drank from it?" Jesus said to her, "Everyone who drinks of this water will be thirsty again, but those who drink of the water that I will give them will never be thirsty. The water that I will give will become in them a spring of water gushing up to eternal life." The woman said to him, "Sir, give me this water, so that I may never be thirsty or have to keep coming here to draw water." Jesus said to her, "Go, call your husband, and come back." The woman answered him, "I have no husband." Jesus said to her, "You are right in saying, 'I have no husband'; for you have had five husbands, and the one you have now is not your husband. What you have said is true!" The woman said to him, "Sir, I see that you are a prophet. Our ancestors worshiped on this mountain, but you say that the place where people must worship is in Jerusalem." Jesus said to her, "Woman, believe me, the hour is coming when you will worship the Father neither on this mountain nor in Jerusalem. You worship what you do not know; we worship what we know, for salvation is from the Jews. But the hour is coming, and is now here, when the true worshipers will worship the Father in spirit and truth, for the Father seeks such as these to worship him. God is spirit, and those who worship him must worship in spirit and truth." The woman said to him, "I know that Messiah is coming" (who is called Christ). "When he comes, he will proclaim all things to us." Jesus said to her, "I am he, the one who is speaking to you." Just then his disciples came. They were astonished that he was speaking with a woman, but no one said, "What do you want?" or, "Why are you speaking with her?" Then the woman left her water jar and went back to the city.

This is the word of God for the people of God.

Thanks be to God!

ANTHEM

Here, O My Lord, I See Thee Face to Face

Percy Whitlock (1903-1946)
Chancel Choir

Here, O my Lord, I see Thee face to face;
Here faith can touch and handle things unseen;
here grasp with firmer hands Thy grace,
and all my weariness upon Thee lean.
Here would we feed upon the bread of God,
here drink with Thee the Royal wine of Heaven;
here would I lay aside each earthly load,
and taste afresh the calm of sin forgiven.

—Horatius Bonar (1808-1889)

GOSPEL LESSON

John 4:29-42

Come and see a man who told me everything I have ever done! He cannot be the Messiah, can he?" They left the city and were on their way to him.

Meanwhile the disciples were urging him, "Rabbi, eat something." But he said to them, "I have food to eat that you do not know about." So the disciples said to one another, "Surely no one has brought him something to eat?" Jesus said to them, "My food is to do the will of him who sent me and to complete his work. Do you not say, 'Four months more, then comes the harvest'? But I tell you, look around you, and see how the fields are ripe for harvesting. The reaper is already receiving wages and is gathering fruit for eternal life, so that sower and reaper may rejoice together. For here the saying holds true, 'One sows and another reaps.' I sent you to reap that for which you did not labor. Others have labored, and you have entered into their labor."

Many Samaritans from that city believed in him because of the woman's testimony, "He told me everything I have ever done." So when the Samaritans came to him, they asked him to stay with them; and he stayed there two days. And many more believed because of his word. They said to the woman, "It is no longer because of what you said that we believe, for we have heard for ourselves, and we know that this is truly the Savior of the world."

This is the word of God for the people of God.
Thanks be to God!

PRAYER OF THE PEOPLE

THE LORD'S PRAYER

Our Father, who art in heaven: hallowed be thy name.
Thy Kingdom come, thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom and the power and the glory forever. Amen.

OFFERTORY

Be Still, My Soul

*Percy Whitlock
Chancel Choir*

Be still, my soul, for God is near,
The great High Priest is with thee now!
The Lord of Life himself is here,
Before whose face the angels bow.

To make thy heart his lowly throne
Thy Saviour God in love draws nigh;
He gives himself unto his own,
For whom he once came down to die.

I come, O Lord, for thou dost call,
To blend my pleading prayer with thine;
To thee I give myself, my all,
And feed on thee, and make thee mine.
Amen.

—William Dalrymple Maclagan (1891-1909)

When I Survey the Wondrous Cross

Were the whole realm of nature mine,
 That were a present far too small;
 Love so amazing, so divine,
 Demands my soul, my life, my all.

+ HYMN

Bless Now, O God, The Journey

1. Bless now, O God, the journey that all your people make,
 2. Bless so-journ-ers and pilgrims who share this wind-ing way;
 3. Di-vine e-ter-nal lov-er, you meet us on the road.
 the path through noise and silence, the way of give and take.
 your hope burns through the terrors, your love sus-tains the day.
 We wait for lands of promise where milk and honey flow,
 The trail is found in desert and winds the moun-tain round,
 We yearn for ho-ly free-dom while of-ten we are bound;
 but wait-ing not for plac-es, you meet us all a-round.
 then leads be-side still wa-ters, the road where faith is found.
 to-geth-er we are seek-ing the road where faith is found.
 Our cov-e-nant is writ-ten on roads, as faith is found.

About today's choral music: Although a relatively minor figure in early 20th century British music, Percy Whitlock was a student of the giant Ralph Vaughan Williams and is said to have been further inspired by the music of Edward Elgar and the popular music composers of his day. He only lived to be 43 years old, due to a tuberculosis diagnosis early in life. This morning the Chancel Choir offers two of his handful of pieces for choir and organ. There are also a few organ solos and a dozen orchestral pieces. Whitlock was a lifelong church musician, served as organist in various cathedrals, parish churches and boroughs in England, and was an avid railway enthusiast.
