TOLLING OF THE BELL

+ CALL TO WORSHIP

Led by Yvonne LaRose

When the world is dim and full of hate and fear,
we will turn towards the Light.
When we cannot find our way back to love and peace
we will turn towards the Light.
When our vision dims due to the darkness within
we will turn towards the Light.
Christ opens our eyes with the gift of sight.
The light of the world is Jesus Christ.
Come and worship the one who brings sight to the blind.

+ OPENING HYMN

Praise the One Who Breaks the Darkness

1. Praise the One who breaks the dark-ness with a lib - er - at - ing light.
2. Praise the One who blessed the chil - dren with a strong yet gen - tle word.
3. Praise the one true love in - car - nate, Christ, who suf - fered in our place.

Praise the One who frees the pris - 'ners, turn - ing blind - ness in - to sight.
Praise the One who drove out de - mons with a pierc - ing, two - edged sword.
Je - sus died and rose for man - y that we may know God by grace.

Praise the One who preached the gos - pel, cur - ing — eve - ry dread dis - ease,
Praise the One who brings cool wa - ter to the — des - ert's burn - ing sand;
Let us sing for joy and glad - ness, see - ing — what our God has done.

calm - ing storms and feed - ing thou - sands with the ver - y bread of peace.
from this well comes liv - ing wa - ter, quench - ing thirst in eve - ry land.
Praise the one re - deem - ing glo - ry. Praise the One who makes us one.

+ PRAYER OF THE DAY (unison) based on Psalm 23

God, you are enough for us;
you give us rest in soft fields and beside whispering streams;
you restore and renew us, and lead us into life-giving ways;

When death and evil come close to us,
you carry us through, you protect and comfort us;
when others seek to do us harm,
your grace uplifts and provides for us in public view;
you fill us with your strength and we enjoy overflowing abundance;

We have confidence that your goodness and compassion will fill our days, and we will stay immersed in your life and presence forever. Amen.

+ SHARING THE PEACE OF CHRIST

The peace of God is here to stay.

Thanks be to God.

All are invited to share the peace with those around you.

TIME FOR YOUNG CHRISTIANS

Jesu, Jesu

Rev. Sandra K. Olewine

As young ones gather in the Chancel, we sing together a proclamation of faith.

Today, children will remain with their parents during worship.

Je - su, Je - su, fill us with your love, show us how to serve the neigh - bors we have from you.

Words: Tom Colvin, 1969; Music: Ghana folk song, arr. Tom Colvin ©1969 & 1989 Hope Publishing Co., Used by permission, OneLicense.net #A-725561

CALL TO CONFESSION

Rev. Connie Millsap

PRAYER OF CONFESSION (in unison)

Healing God, we have languished in our blindness.
We have chosen to hide in darkness
in order to avoid reaching out and risking acceptance.
We are afraid of the light, and yet we crave it.
In your light, there is healing and hope, restoration and transformation.
Forgive our lack of faith and our fearfulness, O Lord.
Give us courage to reach out to the light and accept its healing rays.
May our lives be transformed by your mercy,
for we pray this in Jesus' name. Amen.

Silent Prayers

Even though you have lived in darkness, God's light is being poured out for you. Accept the light and love that is freely offered, and be transformed by its healing mercies.
We will go from this place, knowing the love of God,
and sharing that love with others. Amen.

WE LISTEN FOR THE WORD

+GOSPEL LESSON

John 9:1-41

Reader's Theater

As he walked along, he saw a man blind from birth. His disciples asked him, "Rabbi, who sinned, this man or his parents, that he was born blind?" Jesus answered, "Neither this man nor his parents sinned; he was born blind so that God's works might be revealed in him. We must work the works of him who sent me while it is day; night is coming when no one can work. As long as I am in the world, I am the light of the world." When he had said this, he spat on the ground and made mud with the saliva and spread the mud on the man's eyes, saying to him, "Go, wash in the pool of Siloam" (which means Sent). Then he went and washed and came back able to see. The neighbors and those who had seen him before as a beggar began to ask, "Is this not the man who used to sit and beg?" Some were saying, "It is he." Others were saying, "No, but it is someone like him." He kept saying, "I am the man." But they kept asking him, "Then how were your eyes opened?" He answered, "The man called Jesus made mud, spread it on my eyes, and said to me, 'Go to Siloam and wash.' Then I went and washed and received my sight." They said to him, "Where is he?" He said, "I do not know."

They brought to the Pharisees the man who had formerly been blind. Now it was a sabbath day when Jesus made the mud and opened his eyes. Then the Pharisees also began to ask him how he had received his sight. He said to them, "He put mud on my eyes. Then I washed, and now I see." Some of the Pharisees said, "This man is not from God, for he does not observe the sabbath." But others said, "How can a man who is a sinner perform such signs?" And they were divided. So they said again to the blind man, "What do you say about him? It was your eyes he opened." He said, "He is a prophet."

The Jews did not believe that he had been blind and had received his sight until they called the parents of the man who had received his sight and asked them, "Is this your son, who you say was born blind? How then does he now see?" His parents answered, "We know that this is our son, and that he was born blind; but we do not know how it is that now he sees, nor do we know who opened his eyes. Ask him; he is of age. He will speak for himself." His parents said this because they were afraid of the Jews; for the Jews had already agreed that anyone who confessed Jesus to be the Messiah would be put out of the synagogue. Therefore his parents said, "He is of age; ask him."

So for the second time they called the man who had been blind, and they said to him, "Give glory to God! We know that this man is a sinner." He answered, "I do not know whether he is a sinner. One thing I do know, that though I was blind, now I see." They said to him, "What did he do to you? How did he open your eyes?" He answered them, "I have told you already, and you would not listen. Why do you want to hear it again? Do you also want to become his disciples?" Then they reviled him, saying, "You are his disciple, but we are disciples of Moses. We know that God has spoken to Moses, but as for this man, we do not know where he comes from." The man answered, "Here is an astonishing thing! You do not know where he comes from, and yet he opened my eyes. We know that God does not listen to sinners, but he does listen to one who worships him and obeys his will. Never since the world began has it been heard that anyone opened the eyes of a person born blind. If this man were not from God, he could do nothing." They answered him, "You were born entirely in sins, and are you trying to teach us?" And they drove him out.

Jesus heard that they had driven him out, and when he found him, he said, "Do you believe in the Son of Man?" He answered, "And who is he, sir? Tell me, so that I may believe in him." Jesus said to him, "You have seen him, and the one speaking with you is he." He said, "Lord, I believe." And he worshiped him. Jesus said, "I came into this world for judgment so that those who do not see may see, and those who do see may become blind." Some of the Pharisees near him heard this and said to him, "Surely we are not blind, are we?" Jesus said to them, "If you were blind, you would not have sin. But now that you say, 'We see,' your sin remains.

This is the word of God for the people of God.

Thanks be to God!

ANTHEM

The King of Love My Shepherd Is

Irish hymn melody
arr. Edward C. Bairstow (1874-1946)
Chancel Choir

The King of love my shepherd is,
whose goodness faileth never.
I nothing lack if I am his,
and he is mine forever.

Thou spreadst a table in my sight;
thy unction grace bestoweth;
and oh, what transport of delight
from thy pure chalice floweth!

Where streams of living water flow,
my ransomed soul he leadeth;
and where the verdant pastures grow,
with food celestial feedeth.

Perverse and foolish, oft I strayed,
but yet in love he sought me;
and gently on his shoulder laid,
and home, rejoicing, brought me.

In death's dark vale I fear no ill,
with thee, dear Lord, beside me;
thy rod and staff my comfort still,
thy cross before to guide me.

And so through all the length of days,
thy goodness faileth never;
Good Shepherd, may I sing thy praise within thy house forever.

—H.W. Baker (1821-1877)

RESPONDING TO THE WORD

PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE

THE LORD'S PRAYER

Our Father, who art in heaven: hallowed be thy name.
Thy Kingdom come, thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom and the power and the glory forever. Amen.

News at First

NOTEWORTHY ITEMS

- UMCOR Offering: This morning First UMC participates in the special offering for the United Methodist Committee on Relief (UMCOR). This offering goes to ensure that UMCOR can continue to aid recovery in the US and around the world. Our offering this morning means that when we take a special offering for any particular disaster, 100% of those dollars go to the relief effort and none is used for overhead of UMCOR.
- Directory Update: Has your contact information changed? Please mark any changes in the Master Copy in Fellowship Hall. Please print clearly.
- Embracing Each Other: Next Sunday at 11:30 a.m. all three of our special presenters will join us for a panel discussion and conversation about how we build a common life together that lifts up mutual respect, justice and compassion toward all God's children.
- Working Together to Fight Climate Change: Saturday, April 1, 9:00 a.m. to 12 noon, First UMC will host the League of Women Voters' sixth annual Climate Change Forum in Fellowship Hall. The church's Risk Taking Mission team is co-sponsoring this event which will feature speakers on a range of topics related to climate change. For more information please visit www.lwv-pa.org All are welcome to this free public event. Light refreshments will be provided.
- Cookbook Deadline Extended: Sick of making the same 5 or 6 recipes every week? FUMC is gathering tried and true recipes: the healthy, the not-so-healthy, and everything in between. Help us create a cookbook that we can share with everyone! Forms for submitting recipes are available in the Church Office and in Fellowship Hall. The deadline for recipe submissions has been changed to Friday, April 7. Contact Maggie for more information at 626.796.0157 or maudley@fumcpasadena.org

GET INVOLVED

- Shepherds Training: Today at 11:30 am in the Church Lounge, Shepherds – new and continuing – will gather for training and information, particularly focusing on the new ministry of taking Holy Communion to our home bound members. Even if you haven't signed up but have a compassionate heart and feel the call to visit with our members who no longer can be among us, you are welcome to attend.
- Turn-a-Page book group has selected the highly readable book, The Wright Brothers, by David McCullough, for our April meeting. Please make a note to join us on April 23 after the worship service in the Lounge to talk about this exciting non-fiction story. Newcomers, if you have read the book in the past, come and share your thoughts. A light lunch is provided (donation requested).
- Easter Basket Donations: Risk Taking Mission is asking for donations of bags of candy, small toys, or $5 fast food or Starbucks gift cards to fill Easter Baskets for the Adopt a Child Abuse Caseworker (ACAC) and Friends in Deed programs. Please turn these items into Diane Harris at coffee hour after church on Sunday or to the church office by April 2. Questions? Contact Diane Harris dmharris150625@gmail.com or 626.665.6786.

GROW IN FAITH

- Prayer Garden Lenten Walk: On Sunday, April 2, join Sunday School families during Sunday Morning Breakfast & Bible Stories for a walk to the Fuller Seminary prayer garden. Smell the herbs and fruits, see the sculptures and enjoy the serenity of the garden. Breakfast is at 9:00 a.m., with the family walk to follow. All ages are welcome.
- Altar Flowers: There are plenty of dates available for Altar Flowers to celebrate special dates or loved ones. The donation is $70.00 per arrangement. Please contact the Church Office to reserve your date today! office@fumcpasadena.org or 626.796.0157
